

Sackville Street Campus

The University of Manchester, Sackville Street Campus

Route Information

The University takes its social responsibility and relations with the local community seriously and aims to reduce its impacts on the environment through its sustainability policies. Therefore, wherever feasible, you are encouraged to travel by sustainable means.

By Rail

PICCADILLY STATION:

Head for the escalators to the left of the concourse, following the signs for Taxis/Fairfield Street. Immediately outside the station main entrance, turn right and cross London Road to the Bulls Head pub. Keeping the Bulls Head on your right walk down London Road and turn right again immediately after the railway viaduct, onto Altrincham Street. Continue straight ahead, with the railway viaduct on your right, you will find the main entrance to the Renold building approx 100 metres on your left. Continue along to the Gatehouse and turn right on to Sackville Street, Sackville Street Building is situated 50 metres on your right.

OXFORD ROAD STATION:

At the bottom of the station approach, cross over Oxford St onto Whitworth St (to the right of the Palace Theatre). Turn right onto Sackville St, Sackville Street building is situated on your left. Proceed under the railway viaduct, turn left immediately before the Gatehouse and continue along the pedestrian walkway. You will find the main entrance to the Renold building approx 100 metres on your right.

VICTORIA STATION:

Take the MetroLink Tram to Piccadilly Rail Station. Exit to the street at platform level following signs for 'taxis' and continue directions as for PICCADILLY STATION.

Cycling

The University provides large numbers of sheffield/hoop stands for cyclists in key locations across both campuses. For detailed information on cycling and routes, as well as a journey planner go to: www.tfgm.com/cycling

Walking

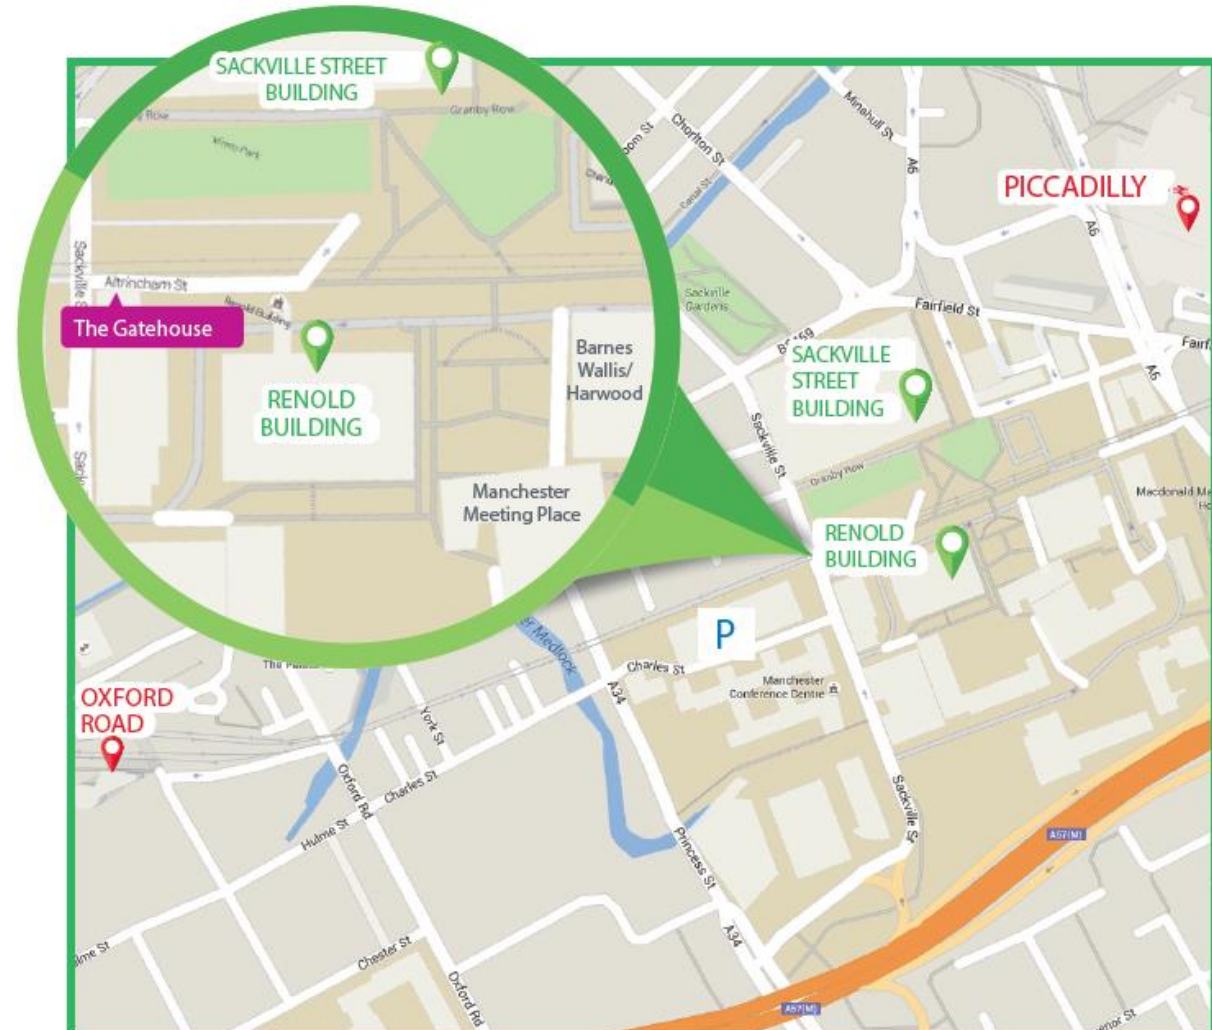

Pedestrians are catered for with designated campus routes and much of Manchester is relatively easy to get around on foot
