

The Insurance Charities

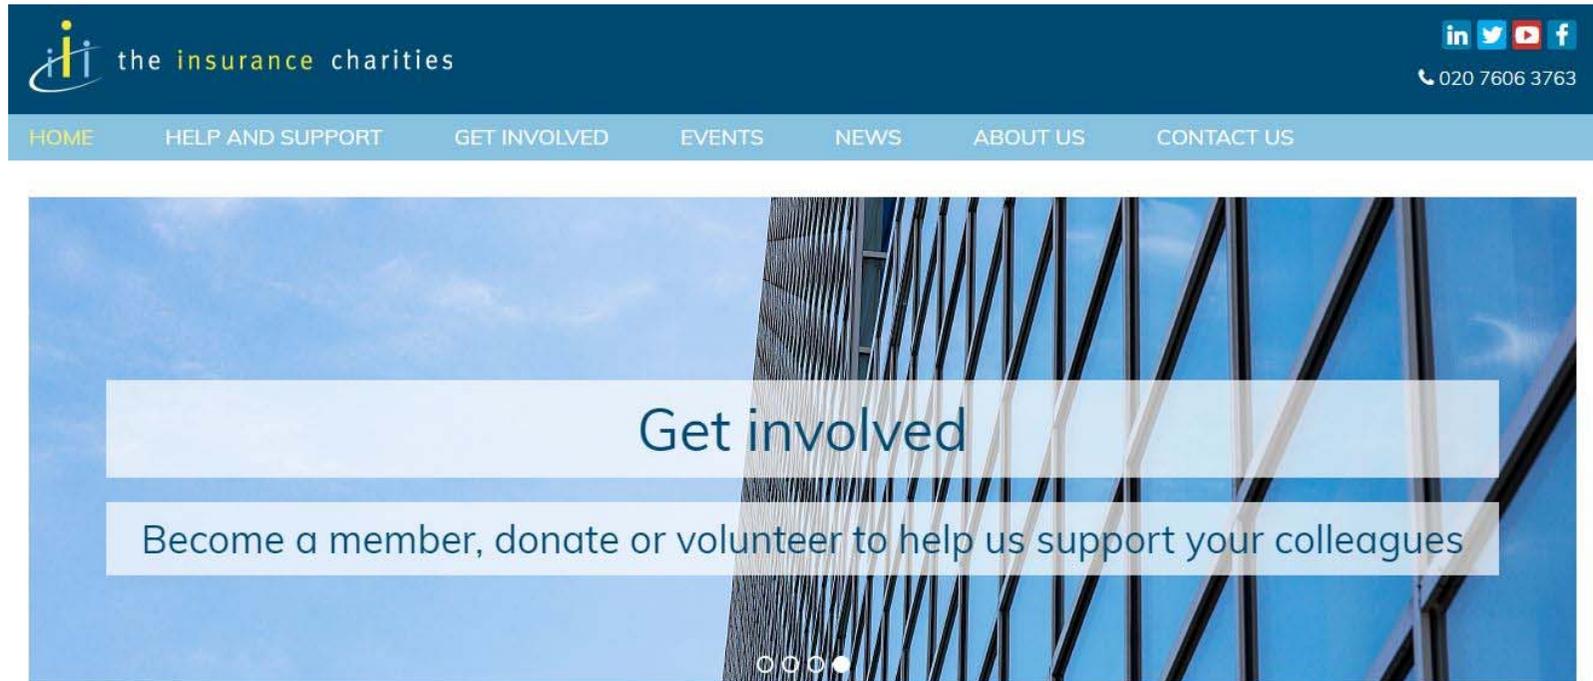

- Set up in 1902 as the Insurance Clerks Orphanage in response to high mortality rate in the City of London
- Several name changes followed over the years
- We became The Insurance Charities in 2004
- We deal with a huge range of issues from providing new washing machines to funding life changing surgery

Case study - Steve

Steve spent over 20 years with an insurance employer. In 2013, his son was diagnosed with cancer. After surgery and chemotherapy it was confirmed that the condition was terminal. We helped Steve while he was going through this very difficult time, you can watch Steve's story here:
