

---

EXETER

---

INSURANCE INSTITUTE

---

The inaugural meeting of the Exeter Insurance Institute has been held at the Royal Clarence Hotel. The formation of the institute being Exeter into line with all the other important insurance centres where the advantages of such gatherings have already been appreciated. Membership of an institute is compulsory on those who wish to qualify for the degrees conferred by the Chartered Insurance Institute. The following officials were elected at the meeting, and any intending members are asked to communicate with the Secretary. Mr. F. B. Yeo, 20, Bedford Circus, Exeter:- President, Mr A. A. Amos (County Fire Office); Vice Presidents, Messrs. A. Sanderson Hall (London Assurance Corporation), L. S. H. Barber (County Fire), G. W. Burrow (Sun), S. S. Andrews (General Accident), E. F. Ware (Assessor), and A. R. Coleby (Norwich Union); Council, Messrs. Westall (Ocean), R. E. Spoons (Motor Union), T. M. James (London and Liverpool and Globe), R. C. Spencer (Vulcan Boiler), I. Williams (City Life), R. D. Young (Commercial Union), R. W. Scott (Royal), and A. D. England (County Fire); Hon Secretary, Mr F. B. Yeo (Sun); Hon Treasurer, Mr. M. G. Amos (County); Hon Auditors. (Messrs, W. H. Ayer and H. Bush (General Accident).