

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

With sell-out dinners for the last four years, the Plymouth and Cornwall dinner has one of the best reputations for a great night of networking, socialising and music. Reaching professional members from Plymouth to Land's End, the annual dinner has become the main insurance and financial planning event of the year.

The Duke of Cornwall will be hosting a room of over 200 professionals. The event will be publicised to just under 1000 members via email invitations and social media.

If you would like to be part of this by promoting your business we have put together the following sponsorship packages:-
