BIRMINGHAM INSURANCE INSTITUTE YOUNG ACHIEVER AWARD 2020

Nominations are invited for the BII Young Achiever Award 2020 sponsored by IDEX Consulting Ltd.

This highly prestigious prize will be awarded to the local general insurance or financial services professional who has demonstrated the highest levels of attitude, performance and achievement in their working life.

Candidates will be judged against their excellence in delivering a service, their leadership and how they have benefited the wider insurance community.

The award is open to any member of the BII, from junior staff through to senior managers and provides a fantastic opportunity to showcase the achievements of individuals that have made a real difference to their business.

The winner will be announced at the 2020 Birmingham Insurance Institute Dinner on 6 March where the finalists will be guests of the sponsor IDEX Consulting Ltd.

Prize: The winner will receive the coveted Young Achiever of the Year shield, for one year and a cheque for £250.

To enter: Entries are invited from any professionals under the age of 35 (as of 6 March 2020) who work in the general insurance or financial services sectors who are members of the Birmingham Insurance Institute.

The applicant may nominate themselves or may be nominated by their manager or employer. If you would like to enter or nominate someone, please download a copy of the nomination form from our website.

Current holder, Jack Farren said "I was delighted to be named as the BII's Young Achiever of the Year in 2019. It was a great personal moment and one that I am very proud of. I'd recommend anyone to enter."

Closing date for entries: All applications shall be made by a deadline of 21 February 2020 by email to Birminghaminstitute@cii.co.uk with an email titled "BII Young Achiever Award 2020".
